

Table 14 Standard "Providing mother's own milk (MOM) for preterm and ill term infants" public consultation comments

ID	Country	How would you rate the overall quality of the standard "Providing mother's own milk (MOM) for preterm and ill term infants"?	Do you have any recommendations on how to improve the standard "Providing mother's own milk (MOM) for preterm and ill term infants" (e.g. rational, benefits, components)?		Is there any important evidence or useful guidelines you would recommend to be included in the standard "Providing mother's own milk (MOM) for preterm and ill term infants"?		Do you think the standard "Providing mother's own milk (MOM) for preterm and ill term infants" is relevant in your country?		Do you have any conflict of interest (e.g. financial support or consulting of industry)?		Please specify if you are responding as an individual or on behalf of an organisation.
		Response	Response	Yes - Please make your recommendation(s) below.	Response	Yes - Please specify below, which evidence should be added (DOIs, references) to the standards and why.	Response	No - Please specify below why the standard is not relevant in your country.	Response	Yes - Please enter your conflict(s) of interest.
1	Czech Republic		4	No		No		Yes		No	Individual
2	Poland		5	No		I don't know		Yes		No	Individual
3	Portugal		5	No		No		Yes		No	Associação Portuguesa de Enfermagem Pediátrica e Neonatal
4	United Kingdom		4	Yes - Please make your recommendation(s) below.	Implementation of a multidisciplinary nutrition and lactation team focused on improved nutrition and human milk exposure will lead to improved health measures in VLBW infants. The example of SPIN Programme from the University of California, San Diego	Yes - Please specify below, which evidence should be added (DOIs, references) to the standards and why.	https://medschool.ucsd.edu/som/pediatrics/Divisions/general-pediatrics/Newborn-Medicine/spin-nicu-staff-resources/Documents/PASSPINImpactposter7.pdf https://medschool.ucsd.edu/som/pediatrics/Divisions/general-pediatrics/Newborn-Medicine/spin-nicu-staff-resources/Documents/SPINIntroPosterpdf.pdf	Yes		No	Individual
5	Slovakia		5	No		No		Yes		No	Section of Nurses Working in Neonatology, part of the Slovak Association of Nurses and Midwives is an organizational unit of the Slovak Medical Society
6	Czech Republic		4	No		I don't know		Yes		No	Czech Neonatal Society
7	Romania		5	No		No		Yes		No	ANMCS
8	Poland		5	Yes - Please make your recommendation(s) below.	Section Rationale This standard is very similar to the standard title: Establishment of enteral feeding I suggest changing the title of standard to Fortification of MOM	Yes - Please specify below, which evidence should be added (DOIs, references) to the standards and why.	See above	Yes		No	Coalition for Premies
9	Australia		3	Yes - Please make your recommendation(s) below.	Somewhere in the standard note should be made that no stigma should attach to women who are unable to provide MOM or choose not to.	No		Yes		No	PRETERM INFANTS' PARENTS' ASSOCIATION INC (PIPA)
10	Croatia		4	No		No		Yes		Yes - Please enter your conflict(s) of interest.	Cooperation with Nutricia and Thermo Fisher Scientific. Croatian Society for Neonatology and Neonatal Intensive Medicine